

Membership FAQ

How can I purchase a membership to Arizona Science Center?

There are four ways to purchase a membership to Arizona Science Center. If you are planning on visiting Arizona Science Center, you may purchase your membership at the time of your arrival at the membership desk. You may purchase a membership online at http://www.azscience.org/become\_a\_member.php, you can also print out the membership form online and mail it to attention: membership, 600 E. Washington St., Phoenix, AZ 85004, or you may purchase your membership over the phone by calling the membership line at 602-716-2029.

How will I show that I am a member?

You will receive a membership card in the mail in approximately 3-4 weeks. If you purchased your membership at Arizona Science Center, you will receive a temporary membership card that is valid until you receive your membership cards in the mail. If you purchased your membership online, please print your confirmation email and present that along with your photo id when you arrive.

When will I receive my membership cards?

We try to get your membership cards to you within 2 weeks. However during high traffic times at Arizona Science Center your membership card may be delayed up to 4 weeks.

May I use my membership without my membership card?

Of course! Your membership is active right away. You may use your membership benefits by presenting a photo id at the membership desk. If you have purchased a membership online and you want to come in right away, please print your confirmation email and bring it with you to make the check in process simpler.

Who can use the membership?

Each membership is limited to two named adults. One of the named adults must be present to use membership. Either of the named adults may use the membership, it is not required that both people be present.

What happens if I loose my card?

You may purchase new cards for $5.00, otherwise you may use your photo ID to access your membership.
